“We are an active part of the community and have been supporting cancer through Cleaning for a Reason (<http://livepage.apple.com/>) and the Deanie Douglas Award for years, so sponsoring this race in particular was a perfect pairing for us,” claimed Stacie McMillan (<http://www.linkedin.com/in/staciemcmillan>), owner of Clean & Simple Cleaning.

Clean and Simple Cleaning is not only sponsoring the race but has a group from their office and crew members who will be participating in the race itself. To further promote this cause, Clean and Simple Cleaning will also be giving away a free cleaning through a contest on their blog (<http://www.cleanandsimplecleaning.com/house-cleaning-blog/>) and another free cleaning in a drawing for their current customers who donate towards the Inspiring Hope Run/Walk.

“I am proud to be able to sponsor and participate in activities like this as a business owner,” said McMillan. “I am truly honored that all the employees at Clean and Simple are just as excited and proud. We are looking forward to coming out along with some of our family members and running or walking together.”

About Clean and Simple Cleaning

For over 20 years, Stacie McMillan, owner of Clean and Simple Cleaning, and her team, has had deep roots in the communities of South Snohomish and North Kings Counties, Washington. In this era of big box stores and corporate franchises, Clean and Simple Cleaning is proud to be an independent, locally-owned house cleaning business that prides itself on excellence.

About Inspiring Hope Run/Walk

Inspiring Hope Run/Walk consists of a 10k run, 5k run and 5k walk starting and finishing at Kamiak High School in Mukilteo. This is the fourth consecutive year this race has been held and 100% of profits benefit the Susan G. Komen for the Cure organization.
